

Art2Action Inc., in partnership with USF, presents...

THIS Bridge: Arab, Middle Eastern & Muslim Artists

Potri Ranka Manis, Artistic Director of Kinding Sindaw Dance & Music Troupe, inaugurates our "Building Bridges: Campus Community Engagement" series, March 17-21, 2014!

Look for these workshops and activities, at USF and in the Tampa Bay community:

- Monday 3/17: VA-PRRC "Voices of Recovery" Veterans Drama Workshop
- Tuesday 3/18: Movement Analysis, USF School of Theatre and Dance
Florida Center for Survivors of Torture Workshop (Clearwater)
Women & Social Justice, USF Department of Women's & Gender Studies
- Wednesday 3/19: M.U.S.E. Mothers & Daughters Workshop, Nur Spirituality Center (Orlando)
Modern 1 & Dance History, USF School of Theatre and Dance
- Thursday 3/20: Immigration & Refugee Services Staff Training
- Friday 3/21: USF Sisters United (SUMA) Workshop

For more information, visit: <http://art2action.org/this-bridge-arab-muslim-middle-eastern-artists> or <http://www.arts.usf.edu/content/templates/?a=4016&z=66>

This project is made possible in part by a grant from the Association of Performing Arts Presenters "Building Bridges: Campus Community Engagement" Grants Program, a component of the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art.

ALSO: March 17-18: "The Greater Middle East & Central Asia in 2020 and Its Implications for American Foreign Policy," USF World, Center for Strategic & Diplomatic Studies Conference, at the Patel Center for Global Solutions Auditorium.
<http://global.usf.edu/csds>